

PHA QUALITY STANDARDS NEWS

January 2023

Interested in or want to find out more about the 'PHA Quality Standards for Services Promoting Mental and Emotional Wellbeing and Suicide Prevention'?

There are several ways to find out more about the standards:

- Visit the Standards website - <https://standards.pharesourcehub.co.uk/> - download the standards, watch introductory videos, register and start your self-assessment.
- Watch the awareness raising video – Short 13-minute awareness raising video which will help increase understanding of the standards and provide an overview of the requirements that will support organisations to meet the standards. Click here to view.
- Book a practical one-to-one session – an opportunity to increase understanding of the standards; reflect on how your organisation has completed the standards framework; and to discuss the evidence you could provide. Click here to book an hour-long time slot.
